

Andrew B. Diaz-Matos is Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of CapSpecialty, a specialty insurance provider for small and mid-sized business across the United States.

Mr. Diaz-Matos serves as principal counsel to the Chief Executive Officer, senior management team, and board of directors. He leads the Law & Compliance Department, which is responsible for legal and regulatory affairs, compliance, corporate secretarial matters, and litigation; the Claims Department, where he sets strategic priorities, including governance and policy, settlement authority, claims handling, reserving, and best practices; and the Human Resources and Administration

Department, which supports the engagement, development, compensation, and performance of all CapSpecialty employees.

Andrew joined CapSpecialty in 2019 from The Hartford (NYSE:HIG), where he was Deputy General Counsel, responsible for providing legal support on mergers and acquisitions, outsourcing, real estate, intellectual property, privacy, IT, operations, and data matters.

Prior to joining The Hartford in 2006, Andrew was the lead lawyer for IBM's (NYSE:IBM) mid-range mainframes business. He began his legal career in the New York office of international law firm White & Case, where his practice focused on domestic and cross-border M&A, private equity, and capital markets.

Mr. Diaz-Matos received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from Boston University and his law degree cum laude from Pace University. He was a visiting law student at University College London and completed a mini-pupillage at Lincoln's Inn (Hardwicke Building). He is admitted to the bars of New York and Connecticut.

Andrew is a member of the boards of directors of the Hartford Public Library and Hartford Stage and is a veteran of the United States Army.
