

Andrew B. Diaz-Matos is Chief Commercial Officer and Chief Legal Officer of Catalina Re. As Chief Commercial Officer, he oversees the insurance business around the world with a focus on profitable runoff income. As Chief Legal Officer, he is responsible for the global legal and secretarial functions for the group and all its subsidiaries. He has 25 years' professional experience, the past 16 in the financial-services sector.

Prior to joining Catalina Re in 2022, he was Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of CapSpecialty, a specialty insurance provider for small and mid-sized business across the United States owned at the time by Alleghany Corp (NYSE:Y). During his tenure there, he led the Law & Compliance, Claims, Human Resources and Administration, and IT functions.

From 2006 through 2019, Andrew held positions of increasing legal responsibility at The Hartford (NYSE:HIG), leaving as Deputy General Counsel, responsible for legal support on mergers and acquisitions, outsourcing, real estate, intellectual property, privacy, IT, operations, and data matters.

Prior to joining The Hartford, he was the lead lawyer for IBM's (NYSE:IBM) mid-range mainframes business. He began his legal career in the New York office of international law firm White & Case, where his practice focused on domestic and cross-border M&A, private equity, and capital markets.

Mr. Diaz-Matos received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from Boston University and his law degree cum laude from Pace University. He was a visiting law student at University College London and completed a mini pupillage at Lincoln's Inn (Hardwicke Building). He is admitted to the bars of New York and Connecticut.

Andrew is a member of the boards of directors of the Hartford Public Library and the Capitol Region Development Authority and is a veteran of the United States Army.
